CONTRACTOR-SUBCONTRACTOR HOLD HARMLESS AGREEMENT

demand as invoiced by Subcontractor for Subcontractor's services.

contractual relationship with Contractor, Subcontractor shall not:

THIS AGREEMENT is made and entered into this day of, 20, by and between UNITED BREEZE CORPORATION, (hereinafter referred to as "Contractor"), a Florida limited liability company with its principal office in DADE County, Florida, and(hereinafter referred to as "Subcontractor"), a resident of County, Florida.
resident of County, Plottda.
-WITNESSETH-
WHEREAS, Contractor owns and operates a HVAC, ELECTRICAL, PLUMBING, ROOFING AND RENOVATION SERVICES COMPANY in County of DADE Florida; and
WHEREAS, Contractor does business and has customers in several counties surrounding its DADE County, Florida, principal business location; and
WHEREAS, the Contractor desires to contract for the unique experience, ability and services of Subcontractor and desires to assure the continuance of the Subcontractor's services by Contractor in an independent contractor relationship; and
WHEREAS, Contractor further agrees to pay to Subcontractor the sum of $100.00 as additional consideration in addition to Subcontractor's contractual relationship as an independent contractor with Contractor to indicate Subcontractor's assent to the provisions of this Agreement.
NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the premises and the representations and agreements of the parties hereinafter set forth, the parties hereto agree as follows:
1. Contract. Contractor contracts with Subcontractor for a period of one (1) year from the date hereof, subject to automatic renewal of a period of one (1) year at the discretion of Contractor.
2. Duties. During the period of his contract, Subcontractor shall perform the following duties:As Required
Subcontractor shall devote time, attention and energies to the business of Contractor.
3. Compensation. As compensation in full for his services hereunder, the Contractor shall pay the Subcontractor upon

(a) Engage in the business of building construction and development, or any related business or enterprise, for any existing customer or client of Contractor for itself, or for any other person or entity; or

4. Covenant Not To Compete. During the term of Subcontractor's contract with Contractor whether pursuant to this

Agreement or otherwise, and for a period of one (1) year from the date that Subcontractor ceases to have a

(b) Engage in the business of building construction and development, or any related business or enterprise for any customer or client of Contractor who established a business relationship with Contractor after the date that Subcontractor ceases to have a contractual relationship with Contractor, within a ONE HUNDRED (100) mile radius of Contractor's corporate offices in DADE County, Florida;

- (c) Directly or indirectly request or advise any of the Contractor's present or future customers to withdraw, curtail or cancel their business with the Contractor; or
- (d) Directly or indirectly disclose to any person, firm or other corporation the names of the Contractor's past, present or future customers; or
- (e) Directly or indirectly induce or attempt to influence any Subcontractor or Subcontractor of Contractor to terminate their contractual relationship with Contractor.

If any provision contained in the foregoing restrictive covenants is held invalid or unenforceable, such portion or provision shall be severed, and the remaining portions or provisions of the covenant shall remain valid and enforceable. If a court of competent jurisdiction determines by final judgement that the scope, time period, or geographical limitations of the covenant specifically set forth herein is too broad to be capable of enforcement, it may modify such covenant and enforce such provision as to scope, time, and geographical area as it deems equitable.

Both parties recognize (1) that the services to be rendered by the Subcontractor are special, unique, and of an extraordinary character; (2) that under Florida law, the Contractor has certain legitimate business interests which justify a Covenant Not to Compete, including that (a) the Subcontractor is privy to confidential business or professional information of the Contractor; (b) that the Contractor has developed and will continue to develop substantial relationships with prospective or existing customers or clients; and (c) that customer goodwill exists as to Contractor in the several counties surrounding DADE County, Florida as to Contractor's business and services; (3) that the restraints on competition as set forth herein are reasonably necessary to protect Contractor's legitimate business interests under Florida law; (4)) that the Covenant Not to Compete as set forth herein is not unduly harsh and oppressive in curtailing the legitimate efforts of the Subcontractor to earn a livelihood; and (5) that irreparable damage will be caused to Contractor by violation of the foregoing provisions of this Covenant Not To Compete, and Subcontractor hereby consents and agrees that an Injunction may be entered by a court of competent jurisdiction enjoining any such violation, though an Injunction is not an exclusive remedy and nothing herein shall prevent Contractor from exercising any and all remedies in law or equity upon the violation of any of the foregoing provisions of this Covenant Not To Compete.

5. Confidentiality. The Subcontractor shall for a period of two (2) years hold all confidential data, customer lists, financial information and trade secrets of the Contractor in confidence and shall not divulge, communicate, use to the detriment of Contractor or for Subcontractor's own account or benefit any of such confidential data, customer lists, financial information and trade secrets. All data, customer lists, financial information, trade secrets, files, records and copies of documents and other material obtained by the Subcontractor during his contractual relationship with Contractor shall be returned to Contractor upon the termination of Subcontractor's contractual relationship with Contractor for whatever reason.

The Subcontractor shall not disclose its status as Subcontractor for Contractor to any person without written consent of the Contractor at any time.

- 6. Insurance. Subcontractor shall obtain and maintain at its own expense until completion of the Work, workers compensation and liability insurance coverage in amounts set forth herein.
- (a) Liability insurance. Prior to Subcontractor commencing any work or services contemplated by this Contract, Subcontractor shall provide Contractor with a Certificate of Insurance and additional insured endorsement, naming Contractor as an additional named insured. Subcontractor will further provide Certificates of Insurance and additional insured endorsements on an annual basis, which names the Contractor as an additional named insured, through the applicable statute of limitations period that a construction defect suit can properly be filed. The coverage available to Contractor as an additional named insured shall not be less than $1,000,000 combined single limit per occurrence and $1,000,000 in the general aggregate, providing for coverage for completed operations, products liability, and contractual liability. The insurance carriers must be "A-"rated or better.
 - 2. (b) Workers compensation coverage. Prior to Subcontractor commencing any work or services contemplated by this Contract, Subcontractor shall also provide proof to Contractor of current valid workers' compensation coverage with a minimum coverage amount of $100,000 per occurrence. Subcontractor hereby waives

- Subcontractor's right of recovery against Contractor for any claims, losses, expenses, or the costs Subcontractor may sustain arising out of this Contract and shall cause the worker's compensation policy to be specifically endorsed to waive all rights of subrogation against Contractor.
- 3. (c) Subcontractor's property, equipment, building materials; Insurance. Subcontractor shall also maintain adequate property insurance on and security for all equipment and building materials whether on-site, or off-site until such time they are incorporated in the Work and final acceptance by Contractor. Subcontractor hereby waives Subcontractor's right of recovery against Contractor for any loss of, or damage to such equipment and building materials, including any loss of use claim, and shall cause each such property insurance policy to include a waiver of subrogation in favor of Contractor.
- 4. (d) Indemnity. The work performed by Subcontractor shall be at the risk of Subcontractor and its Subcontractors, exclusively. To the fullest extent permitted by law, Subcontractor shall indemnify, protect, defend (at Subcontractor's sole expense) and hold harmless Contractor, and Owner (if different from Contractor), from and against any and all claims for bodily injury or death, damage to property, demands, damages, actions, causes of action, suits, losses, judgments, obligations and any liabilities, costs and expenses (including, but not limited to investigative and repair costs, attorney fees and costs, and consultant's fees and costs), which arise or are in any way connected with the work performed, materials furnished, or services provided under this agreement, by Subcontractor or its agents. Said indemnity and defense obligations shall further apply, whether or not said claims arise out of the concurrent act, omission, or negligence of the indemnified parties, whether active or passive. Subcontractor shall, at Subcontractor's own cost, expense, and risk, defend all suits, actions, or other proceedings that may be instituted by a third party against Contractor covered by this indemnification. Subcontractor shall reimburse Contractor for any expenses Contractor incurs in enforcing this indemnification. Subcontractor shall not be obligated to indemnify or defend Contractor or Owner for claims found to be due to the sole negligence or willful misconduct of indemnified parties. Contractor shall include UNITED BREEZE CORPORATION its members, agents, and Subcontractors.
- 7. Termination of Contractual Relationship. The Subcontractor's contractual relationship with Contractor is to be considered "at-will" and may be immediately terminated upon the violation of any of the provisions of this Contractor-Subcontractor Agreement or for other good cause or without cause.
- 8. Joint Drafting. This Contractor-Subcontractor Agreement is the product of the joint efforts and agreement of Contractor and Subcontractor and is not solely drafted by either one of them. Any ambiguity created herein shall not be construed against either of the parties hereto in particular.
- 9. The Entire Agreement. This Contractor-Subcontractor Agreement contains the entire understanding between the parties. It may not be changed orally, but only by agreement in writing signed by the party against whom enforcement of any waiver, change, modification or discharge is sought.
- 10. Waiver. The failure of either party to insist in any one or more instances upon the performance of any term or condition of this Contractor-Subcontractor Agreement shall not be construed as a waiver of future performance of any such term or condition, but the obligations of either party with respect thereto shall continue in full force and effect.
- 11. Assignment. This Agreement shall inure to the benefit of Contractor and any entity owned or controlled by it, and their respective successors and assigns.
- 12. Headings. Headings in this Contractor-Subcontractor Agreement are for convenience only and shall not be used to interpret or construe its provisions.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, UNITED BREEZE CORPORATION, has caused its duly authorized members to executhis Agreement, andhas hereunto set his hand and seal, the day and year first above written.

ACKNOWLEDGE REGARDING ACCIDENT REPORTING AND RETURN TO WORK POLICIES

I understand that the company has procedure that I should follow in the event of on-the-job injury.

I agree to:

- 1. Immediately notify my supervisor of any on-the-job injury, no matter how minor;
- 2. Seek medical treatment according to the instructions/information listed on posted panels found on the company bulleting board
- 3. For injuries that do not permit me to return to my pre-injury job, I will cooperate with my treating physician, the workers compensation insurance company, and my supervisor to return to work in temporary transitional duty until or not at all until my physician releases me to full, regular work in writing.

I understand that if I have any questions or concerns, I should discuss them with my supervisor or human resources or operations representative for the company.

Future developments. Information about developments affecting Form W-9 (such as legislation enacted after we release it) is at www.irs.gov/fw9.

Purpose of Form

An individual or entity (Form W-9 requester) who is required to file an information return with the IRS must obtain your correct taxpayer identification number (TIN) which may be your social security number (SSN), individual taxpayer identification number (ITIN), adoption taxpayer identification number (ATIN), or employer identification number (EIN), to report on an information return the amount paid to you, or other amount reportable on an information return. Examples of information returns include, but are not limited to, the following:

- Form 1099-INT (interest earned or paid)
- Form 1099-DIV (dividends, including those from stocks or mutual funds)

- Form 1098 (home mortgage interest), 1098-E (student loan interest), 1098-T (tuition)
- Form 1099-C (canceled debt)
- Form 1099-A (acquisition or abandonment of secured property)

Use Form W-9 only if you are a U.S. person (including a resident alien), to provide your correct TIN.

If you do not return Form W-9 to the requester with a TIN, you might be subject to backup withholding. See What is backup withholding? on page 2.

By signing the filled-out form, you:

- 1. Certify that the TIN you are giving is correct (or you are waiting for a number to be issued).
- 2. Certify that you are not subject to backup withholding, or
- 3. Claim exemption from backup withholding if you are a U.S. exempt payee. If applicable, you are also certifying that as a U.S. person, your allocable share of

- Form 1099-MISC (various types of income, prizes, awards, or gross proceeds)
- Form 1099-B (stock or mutual fund sales and certain other transactions by brokers)
 • Form 1099-S (proceeds from real estate transactions)
- Form 1099-K (merchant card and third party network transactions)

any partnership income from a U.S. trade or business is not subject to the withholding tax on foreign partners' share of effectively connected income, and 4. Certify that FATCA code(s) entered on this form (if any) indicating that you are exempt from the FATCA reporting, is correct. See What is FATCA reporting? on page 2 for further information.
